

INTRODUCTION: 60617 is a medium gray, coherent, impact melt (Fig. 1). It is subangular with a few small areas of dark splash glass. It is a rake sample collected about 70 m west southwest of the Lunar Module. Zap pits are rare.

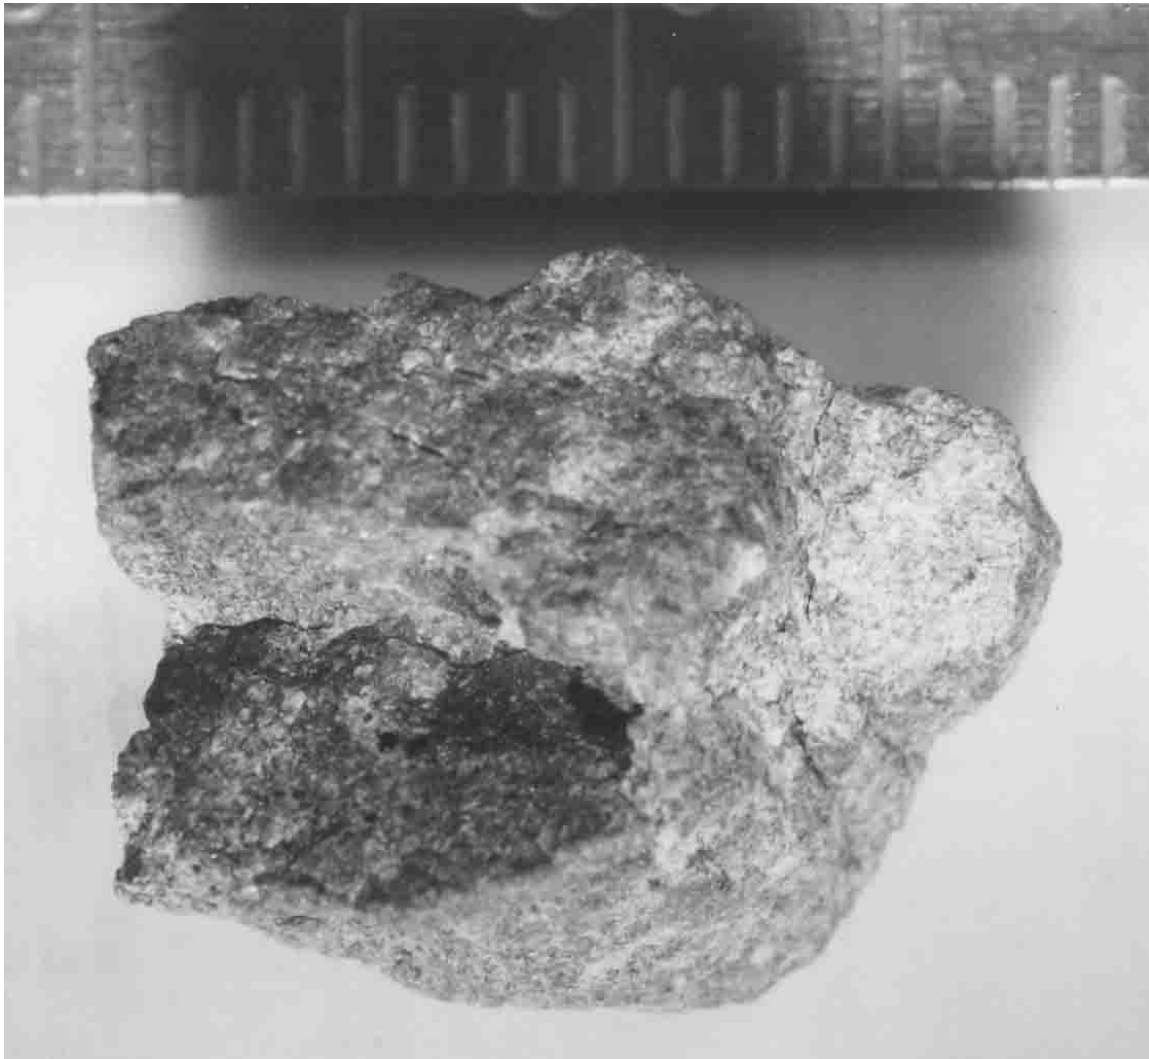

FIGURE 1. Smallest scale division in mm.