

INTRODUCTION: 61565 is an aggregate of several fragments of gray breccia welded together by dark, vesicular glass (Fig. 1). Some dust adheres to the smooth surfaces of the glass. It is a rake sample collected about 45 m northeast of Plum Crater. Zap pits are absent.

FIGURE 1. Aluminum cup bottom is 2 inches in diameter. S-72-43350.