

INTRODUCTION: 61566 is a coherent, dark gray, glassy impact melt (Fig. 1). It is angular with several clasts and many vesicles and was collected as a rake sample about 45 m northeast of Plum Crater. Zap pits are absent.

FIGURE 1. Aluminum cup bottom is 2 inches in diameter. S-72-43350.