

INTRODUCTION: 67649 is a pale colored, friable breccia containing dark angular clasts (Fig. 1). It is a rake sample collected 30 m east of the White Breccia boulders and its friable surface lacks zap pits.

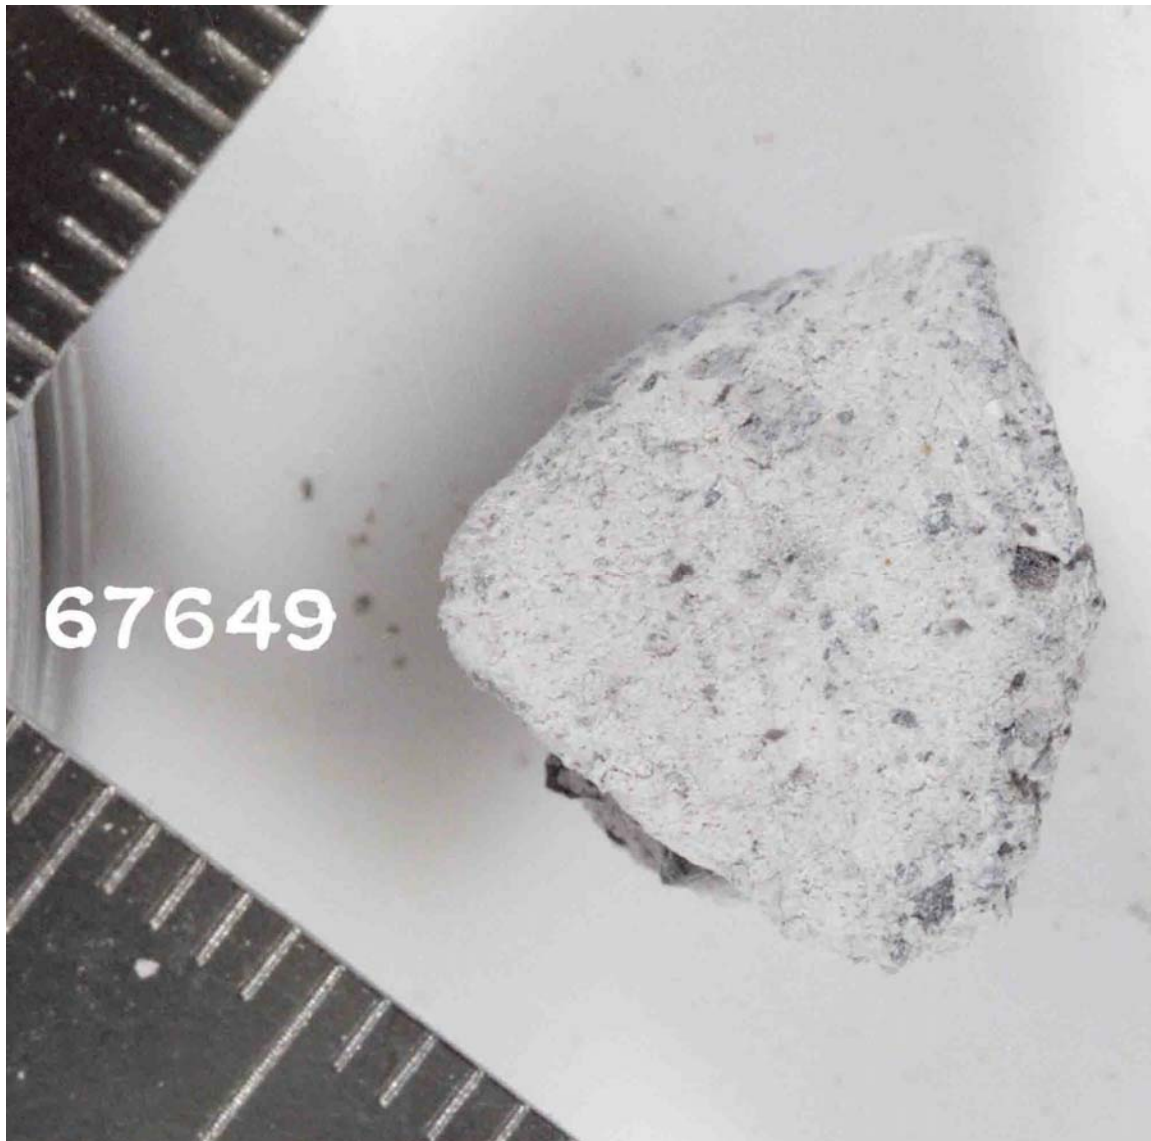

FIGURE 1. Smallest scale division in mm. S-72-51051.